Participants are chosen for their expertise related to the Poudre River, including those from the agricultural, environmental, municipal, industrial, recreational, business, development, and other sectors. Another factor in the selection of participants is the intent to include individuals associated with a wide diversity of organizations with interests in the Poudre River. Those chosen must embrace the value of collaboration.

What is The Poudre Runs Through It Study/Action Work Group?

It's about 25 citizen experts representing a diversity of interests in the Poudre - agricultural, urban, environmental - selected to study the Poudre River and formulate cooperative actions based on what they learn. They have been meeting since 2012 to build relationships and to put in action the initiatives they have identified, "to make the Poudre River the world's best example of a healthy working river." Staging this annual Poudre River Forum is a great example. To learn more, go to
