The Poudre Runs Through It Study/Action Work Group
AGENDA

January 11, 2013

8:30-9:00am  Pre-Session Coffee/Conversation

9:00-10:00  Ready, Set, Go!
Today, February and Beyond
Reagan Waskom—Group Discussion

10:00-10:30  Shawn Hoff and Richard Raines:
The Tri-Districts—the entities that divert and deliver the water to those of us outside the City of Fort Collins service area: boundaries, water supply plans for urban growth

10:30--10:45  Break

10:45am-12:15pm  John Stokes:
What’s on the Natural Resources Drawing Board for the Poudre

12:15-1:00  Lunch

1:00--2:15  Matt Robenault:
What’s on DDA’s Drawing Board for the Poudre
Rich Shannon:
What’s on a Private Developer’s Drawing Board for the Poudre

2:15—2:45  Bob Streeter, South Platte Basin Roundtable Environmental Representative:
Overview and discussion about non-consumptive needs assessment developed by Colorado Department of Parks and Wildlife for sections of the Poudre

2:45—3:00  Break

3:00—3:30  Susan Smolnik:
Case Study, including Discussion
How Drought on the Murray-Darling Spurred Big Change in Water Policy

3:30--4:00pm  Wrap-up Comments/Observations & Homework—Reagan

4:00-4:30pm  Post-Session Conversation